

POSTERS URGING GENERAL STRIKE COVER LAWRENCE

All Workers Asked to Walk Out—Gov. Foss Defends Restriction of Children.

LAWRENCE, Mass., Feb. 25.—Following the riotous scenes of yesterday, when the police marched scores of children to the poor farm on the technical charge of being neglected, after they had been taken from their mothers at the railroad station, when about to be sent to other cities until the strike was ended, the authorities awoke today to face a new form of trouble.

From one corner of the city to the other, in every conceivable spot, flaming red posters were found pasted on fences, telephone poles, public buildings, and private residences.

These posters were of three types, the one most in evidence being an appeal to all workers in every trade to strike for a two-fold purpose—the increasing of their own wages and the aiding of the cause of the mill strikers.

A second series was devoted to those who had struck and had returned to work; the third to the soldiers, many of whom, when their military service was ended, will have to go back to their trade in the mills and factories.

Governor Foss issued a statement last evening in which he defended the action of the authorities as necessary in order to make sure that many of the children were not being sent to places even worse than their homes.

No attempt was made today to send any more children out of town, but the strikers insist they will renew their efforts tomorrow, even if they have to send the children in barges or separately to other cities or towns to be put aboard the trains.

A score of arrests were made today of workers who were pasting up the stickers, but despite the vigilance of the police the posters appear everywhere.

Toledo Hermit Murder Defies Police Solution

TOLEDO, Ohio, Feb. 25.—The identity of the slayers of Mrs. Lena Madge, wealthy hermit, whose body was found in the rear of her notion store at 890 Summit street early Saturday morning, remains unsolved, the police say today. So far but two arrests have been made, that of William Stanley, aged twenty-eight, of Mansfield, Ohio, and Miss Clara Orenham, aged forty, of Huron street. The police believe the couple knew something about the crime.

The police today are working on a clue furnished by H. B. Sinek, proprietor of the Sinek Baking Company, who told the authorities that Friday morning a young man entered his office and asked to borrow a ladder, saying that he wanted to use it in cleaning snow off the roof of Mrs. Madge's building. He said he was a stranger in the city and penniless and was glad of the chance to earn a little money. When the man returned the ladder an hour later, he was seen, according to Sinek, to join six other men.

Coroner Henzler held a post mortem examination of the body and pronounced death due to cerebral hemorrhage.

Attends Party at Home Of Mr. Fight; in Hospital

CINCINNATI, Feb. 25.—Deline Marshall, 115 Budd street, was taken to the city hospital early today probably fatally injured from two cuts, one of which divided his scalp, and the other made a gash from forehead to chin. Marshall attended a wedding party at the home of Jesse Fighl, at 214 West Sixth street here.

During the festivities William Welch, of 671 West Fifth avenue, accused Marshall of being too attentive to Mrs. Welch. It is said Welch cut Marshall, and was aided in the fight by Barney Wiggins, 612 West Sixth street. Wiggins and Welch were arrested. A pair of brass knuckles were found in Wiggins' pocket, and he was charged with carrying concealed weapons.

Toledo Wants Taft To Make Two Speeches

TOLEDO, Feb. 25.—The Toledo Commerce Club plans for the visit of President Taft to Toledo, Friday, March 2, now provide for two speeches, one at the afternoon meeting in the Valentine Theater, and the other at a banquet in the Seor Hotel in the evening. The afternoon meeting is planned to be a public one, while the banquet will be a $3 affair, limited to club members.

Both the theater and banquet hall have been reserved, but definite announcement of the arrangement is withheld until an answer is received to a telegram sent by the club to Secretary Hillis at Washington as to whether President Taft will consent to make two addresses here or only one.

PEDESTRIANS TO BE ARRESTED IF THEY TRY TO USE BRIDGE

Major Sylvester Says Violations of Order Will Be Punished.

"Pedestrians violating the Commissioner's orders in crossing the Calvert street bridge will certainly be arrested. Any driver of a vehicle who attempts to cross will be arrested."

This was the positive statement of Major Sylvester today, relative to the position of the Police Department. Major Sylvester emphatically denied that the order could not be enforced through arrest, as was stated by one of the newspapers this morning.

"Such a statement is absurd," he said. "The matter of what charge would be placed against a person violating the order depends entirely on the circumstances of the arrest. It might be 'disorderly conduct,' or it might be 'violation of the police laws and regulations.'"

It is held that the bridge is unsafe, and the passage of pedestrians on the foot way tends to weaken it, consequently such passage is a destruction of the property, according to the major's apparent line of reasoning.

No arrests for violation of the bridge order had been made up to a late hour today, though there were many persons who visited the neighborhood to see the subject of controversy. They crossed over and under the bridge, along Rock Creek.

Four policemen have been stationed at the bridge since yesterday, and they are warning all persons who attempt to cross on foot that they are doing so at their own risk. The cars are passing as usual. The bridge guardians are given explicit instructions to let no person walk upon the overhanging portions of the bridge that do not rest directly on the bridge trusses.

Native of Georgetown Dies in New Mexico

Frank L. Gates, about thirty years old, a native of Georgetown and a Spanish war veteran, died recently at Belen, N. M. His mother, father, and several sisters and brothers are believed to be living in Georgetown at the present time, and the police are endeavoring to locate them.

A letter was received at police headquarters today from the Belen chief of police, saying that Gates had died there. He destroyed his correspondence shortly before he died, and because of this fact the Belen authorities were unable to locate the Gates family.

New Catholic Church To Be Built at Berwyn

LAUREL, Md., Feb. 25.—A Catholic church will be built this spring at Berwyn, near Laurel. Sufficient funds have been raised to start the work, and a supper and dance was held two evenings of this week for the purpose of raising funds.

The Rev. Thomas Dolan, pastor of St. Jerome's Church, of Hyattsville, is working hard for the building of the new church. A plot of ground was obtained several years ago through entertainments, and a sum of nearly $1,000 remains on hand from that time.

Rev. Mr. Swem to Discuss Moral Conditions Here

Moral and social conditions in Washington will be discussed tonight by the Rev. E. Mez Swem, pastor of the Capital Baptist Church, in his sermon at the Typographical Temple at 8 o'clock on "The Greatest Thing God Can Do for Washington People."

"My sermons are taken from some verse or verses in the Bible, but always applied to local conditions and local people," said the Rev. Swem today. "Tonight I will tell the people what God can do for them."

Gibbons Attacked With Laryngitis

BALTIMORE, Feb. 25.—Cardinal Gibbons, who is suffering with a slight attack of laryngitis, was not well enough today to confirm a class at St. Edward's Church, at Calverton.

Dr. Charles O'Donovan, who is attending the cardinal, advised him not to go out today or account of the dampness. The cardinal expects to be out in a few days.

The class, which numbered seventy-one, including sixty-three children and eight adults, was confirmed by Bishop O. B. Corrigan.
